

The Certification Board of Infection Control & Epidemiology (CBIC) is offering attendees of the 2007 CHICA Canada Annual Conference who have never been certified a discounted examination rate!

The completed application forms must be submitted to CBIC within 60 days of the end of the conference – or before August 14, 2007. Applicants must be eligible at the time of applications and meeting all of the qualifications for entrance. The fee must be submitted in US dollars and the discounted examination fee is $155 USF.

Applicants must provide documentation of registration and attendance at the conference such as a certificate of attendance or receipt for registration fees including the applicant's name.

For information on qualifications and test sites, see www.cbic.org.
