POSITION: Non-Union
Infection Control Practitioner – One (1) Full Time

DEPARTMENT/CAMPUS: Infection Control - Multiple Sites

POSTING NUMBER: OSLER17983

HOURS: Currently Days/Evenings, 8 hours, including weekends and statutory holidays
(Subject to change in accordance with operational requirements)

HOW YOU WILL HAVE AN IMPACT:
The Infection Control Prevention and Control (IPAC) department is an integral part of William Osler Health System. As a member of this department, the IPAC practitioner facilitates infection control activities and is considered a change agent with the primary goal of reducing risk of hospital acquired infections (HAI). The IPAC practitioner directly reports to the IPAC Manager.

YOU HAVE:
- A degree in health related discipline preferred (e.g. nursing, laboratory, epidemiology, and other allied health)
- Current registration and in good standing with a regulatory body in Ontario
- Previous experience as an Infection Control Practitioner is preferred in an acute care setting
- Completion of an entry Level 1 Infection Control course
- Certified in Infection Prevention and Control (CIC) preferred or commitment within 2 years
- Knowledge and/or job related experience in health care practices
- Strong knowledge of infectious diseases, microbiology, epidemiology and statistics
- Proficiency in the use of computer databases, spreadsheets, Meditech and literature search
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively in a multidisciplinary team environment
- Self-directed, well-organized and detail-oriented
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and presentation skills
- Excellent attendance, punctuality and work record
- Demonstrated skill in teaching and strong written communication skills
- Able to participate in the IPAC on-call rotation and travel between sites

INTERNAL APPLICATION DEADLINE: Friday, February 25, 2022

POSTED: Friday, February 18, 2022

* In order to be considered for this position, you must include a current resume with your on-line application.

 Only those applicants selected for interviews will be contacted **

Please apply online at www.williamoslerhs.ca