Dear IPAC Canada Members,

RE: New CJIC Website Announcement

As announced during the IPAC Canada Annual General Meeting of May 19, 2022, the Canadian Journal of Infection Control (CJIC) now has a dedicated website <https://www.cjic.ca>.

Member Log In

Effective immediately all CJIC related information on the main IPAC Canada website has been migrated to this website. To read articles from current issues of CJIC, you will be required to log in with your IPAC Canada registered email (as your username) and qgkCiLGj6m1g6Mne as your temporary password. Note that you may use the Forgot Password option to change this password.

Submission of Manuscripts

Also, effective immediately authors can submit their manuscript electronically by clicking on “Submit A Manuscript” on the website and they will be directed to the Editorial Manager platform.

Once in the Editorial Manager, you will need to register as an “Author” and then proceed with submitting your manuscript.

IPAC Canada thanks Craig Kelman & Associates, Publisher of CJIC, for their generous support of development and maintenance of the new webpage.

Best regards,

Jim Ayukekbong BMLS PhD CIC
